

Florida Citrus Harvesting Periods*

	Oct	Nov	Dec	Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	Jun	Jul	Aug	Sept
Navel	Orange
Ambersweet	Orange
Hamlin	Orange
Parson Brown	Orange
Pineapple		Orange
Sunstar		Orange
Midsweet		Orange
Gardner		Orange
Valencia			Orange
Sanguinelli			Orange
Duncan		Yellow
Marsh		Yellow
Foster		Yellow
Thompson (Pink Marsh)		Yellow
Redblush (Ruby)		Yellow
Ray Ruby		Yellow
Flame		Yellow
Rio Red		Yellow
Star Ruby		Yellow
Minneola		Red-Orange
Orlando		Red-Orange
Nova		Red-Orange
Robinson		Red-Orange
Sunburst		Red-Orange
Dancy		Red-Orange
Murcott (Honey Tangerine)		Red-Orange
Temple (Temple Orange)		Red-Orange
Osceola		Red-Orange
Lee		Red-Orange
Fallglo		Red-Orange
Page		Red-Orange
Satsuma		Red-Orange									Red-Orange
Ponkan		Red-Orange
Tahiti (Persian)									Light Green
Key Lime (Mexican)		Light Green
Meyer		Light Green
Bearss (Sicilian)		Light Green									Light Green
Calamondin		Light Green
Nagami Kumquat		Light Green
Meiwa Kumquat		Light Green
Tavares Limequat		Light Green
Hirado Buntan Seedling (Pummelo)		Light Green
Nakon (Pummelo)		Light Green

* Marketing of each variety exceeds range shown due to maturity affected by Florida's seasonal & production location variations. Harvest of grapefruit in southern Florida begins usually in late Sept. - early Oct. with legal maturity obtained 2-3 weeks later in central and northern growing areas. Best eating quality is usually not attained until Nov.